

Flair Electronics Systems Ltd

Quality Policy

We will meet or exceed our customers' expectations through continual improvement of performance, reliability, responsiveness and value.

Additionally, the Company is committed to complying with all requirements so placed upon it and to continually improve the effectiveness of the quality management system employed.

Quality objectives will be established and reviewed at all relevant areas and levels of the organization.

This policy will be communicated and understood throughout the organization. It will be reviewed for suitability at appropriate times.